THIRD TEST MATCH.

BRILLIANT BATTING BY HAMMOND.

ENGLAND 85 BEHIND WIT SIX WICKETS IN HAND.

BLACKIE BOWLS FIDELY.

Brilliant batting by Hammond was the sure of the play in the Third Test Match yesterday, and the close of play, England had 812 runs, being only 85 in arrears with six wickets to fall.

The most valuable partnership was that between Hammond and Sutcliffe. The pair put on 133 runs for the second wicket, of which number Sutcliffe scored 50.

Partnerships, however, were completely overshadowed by the personal achievement of Walter Hammond, who at the end of the play had contributed 169 (not out).

The big score was made in a perfect exhibition of batting, Hammond combining superb defence with ready attack on anything loose. He gave no chance at a time, and yet managed to score more than half the English total.

During the day, he put on 147 runs, while England added only 255. The figures are testimony in themselves to Hammond's splendid effort.

The young Gloucester professional is within reach of another double century. If he attains it, he will be the only player to have made two double centuries in Test Matches, and, of course, the fact of making them in successive innings, would be most remarkable.

HAMMOND MAKES 169 NOT OUT.

Melbourne, Jan. 1. The third day of the Third Test Match was greeted by heavy skies, drizzle, and oppressive heat. Over 20,000 spectators were on the ground when Sutcliffe (15) and Hammond (12) went out to resume England's first innings on a pitch, which while not so good as yesterday, was playing well.

England's over-night total of 47, increased to 50 soon after the start. The innings had not yet been in progress for five minutes.

Sutcliffe Outpaced. Subsequently, the crowd was attracted to a delightful and skilful exhibition of batting by Hammond, who scored all round the wicket with delightful freedom. Sutcliffe presented a solid defence, but was overshadowed by his partner, who scored nearly three times as fast.

It was learned during the morning that Freeman, the Kent slow bowler, not playing in the Test, will be in bed suffering from a sore throat.

While Sutcliffe stayed for a time at 25, Hammond sent up his personal half-century, and then with a brilliant stroke to the boundary through the covers, completed England's first 100. Hammond had scored 54 runs at this stage, out of 72 while he was at bat.

125 for 1 Wicket. The cricket quietened down in the face of some really good bowling, though curiously enough, Sutcliffe's rate of scoring improved.

When the lunch interval was over England had made 125 for the loss of Hobbs' wicket, Sutcliffe being not out 44 and Hammond out 61.

Sutcliffe played steadily after lunch, snicking the ball to the boundary from A. Beckett to reach 50. He had been batting for 50 minutes. Soon afterwards, however, he mis-timed a good ball from Blackie and was dismissed.

Chapman Dismissed. A. P. F. Chapman, England's opener, joined Hammond, receiving Jardine in the batting, probably in order to make use of the latter's wonderful defence if it should become necessary.

Chapman had a bright knock, being 24 out of 40, and was bowled by Blackie.

A very attractive cricket was seen.

NEW YEAR'S EVE TRAGEDY.

EATING-HOUSE PROPRIETOR SHOT DEAD.

RAID BY ROBBERS.

An eating-house situated by the roadside at Tai Wah Street, Mongkok, was the scene of an armed robbery and tragedy on New Year's Eve. The place was raided by armed robbers, who shot the proprietor dead and escaped with $230.

One of the folk told the police that he immediately bolted from the shop upon being made aware of the intentions of the visitors, and as he left, he heard his employer utter a cry which was followed by the report of a revolver shot.

Returning to the shop some time later with the wife of the proprietor, he found the owner dying from a revolver wound. The man died.

JAPANESE STEAMER FOUNDERS.

Destroyer Discovers four Survivors Only.

NEW YEAR TRAGEDY.

Shanghai, Jan. 1. A shipping tragedy appears to be contained in a report from Japan to the effect that the S.S. Toyotomi Maru sent out frantic distress signals this morning, vessels answering the call failing to find any trace of the steamer.

The S.O.B. calls were picked up by the Japanese Naval Station at Sasebo, and a destroyer was immediately dispatched.

The destroyer now wirelessly that it had been unable to discover any trace of the vessel.

Four of the crew have been picked up, and it is feared that the remaining 31 have been drowned.—Reuter.

BRITISH EXPERTS APPOINTED.

It is announced that Sir Josiah Stamp, who was one of the British representatives on the Dawes Commission, and Lord Revelstoke, who is a director of the Bank of England, have been appointed to act as the British representatives on the Committee of Experts which is to go into the problem of reparations.—Reuter.

CHANGES IN THE AIR MINISTRY.

THREE NEW APPOINTMENTS MADE.

London, Jan. 1. The Air Ministry announces that Air Marshal Sir John Salmond has been appointed Air Chief Marshal.

Air Vice-Marshal Sir John Higgins has been appointed Air Marshal, and Air Commodore H. C. T. Dowling, Air Vice-Marshal.—Reuter.

FRENCH POLITICAL SURPRISE.

M. POINCARÉ DESIROUS OF RESIGNING.

BUT CHANGES MIND.

Paris, Dec. 31. It is revealed that M. Poincaré, the Premier, to-day announced his intention of resigning, but, on pressure being exerted on him, he decided to remain at the post.

It was at a meeting of the Council of Ministers that M. Poincaré declared that as the Budget had been voted and the stabilisation of the franc secured, he considered that his task had been achieved. He therefore intended to resign.

In a discussion which followed, however, the Ministers, unanimously expressed the view that, despite the importance of the results reached, a considerable task, both internal and external, remained, and M. Poincaré's presence in the Cabinet was indispensable in dealing with it.

Thereupon, M. Poincaré withdrew his intention to resign.—Havas.

GERMAN ABILITY TO PAY.

MR. PARKER GILBERT AND REPARATION.

CRITICISES INCREASES OF OFFICIAL SALARIES.

TWO BRITISH EXPERTS.

Berlin, Jan. 1. Some pointed comment on Germany's capacity to meet her reparations commitments, and on certain financial errors, are contained in the Fourth Annual Year report of Mr. Parker Gilbert, the Agent-General for Reparations Payments.

Mr. Parker Gilbert says that Germany has again made all payments required of her, namely 1,700,000,000 gold marks, loyally and punctually.

ALLIED SHARES.

The British share is 373,240,000 marks, of which 13,000,000 marks is used for the expenses of the British Army of Occupation in the Rhineland Zone.

France's share is 1,000,000,000 marks, of which 60,000,000 marks is devoted to the service of the French Army on the Rhine.

Mr. Gilbert Parker, reporting on Germany's financial position generally, again draws attention to the sweeping increases in official salaries and pensions, and the continuing drain of the financial settlement between the Reich and the States Commines.

Advice to Germany. In connexion with this latter arrangement, Mr. Gilbert declares that the German Government, by taking practical steps to protect its own budget, can save hundreds of millions of marks.

He adds: There can be no question of the ability of the budget of the Reich to provide the full amount of its standard contribution under the experts' plan, namely 2,000,000,000 gold marks in the year 1928-29.—Reuter.

BRITISH EXPERTS APPOINTED.

AMERICAN FRIENDS OF THE PRINCE.

GENEROUS CONTRIBUTION TO MINERS.

London, Jan. 1. "American friends of the Prince of Wales" who otherwise are anonymous, have contributed $20,000 to the Miners' Relief Fund, in response to the broadcast of the Prince's Christmas appeal.

The money was transferred from America following a New York-London conversation between an American friend of the Prince and Sir Godfrey Thomas, his secretary.—Reuter.

THE PAUL LECAT FIRE.

ALL INTERNAL FITTINGS DESTROYED.

Marseilles, Dec. 31. Firemen have extinguished the fire which broke out aboard the liner Paul Lecat while she was in dry dock.

All the internal fittings were destroyed, only the hull being saved.

The cause of the fire is still unknown.—Reuter.

HAYLEY MORRIS APPEAL.

OBJECTION TO MAINTENANCE NOT UPHOLD.

MATTER OF INCOME.

The Master of the Rolls and Lord Justice Lawrence in the Court of Appeal on Dec. 3 dismissed an appeal by Mr. Hayley Morris, of Pippinford Park, Nutley, from an order of Mr. Justice Hill, who had dismissed an appeal from an order of the Registrar fixing permanent maintenance for Mr. Morris's former wife, Mrs. Daphne Morris, and their three children, at $1,200.

Mr. H. Simmons, for Mr. Morris, said that the objection was to the amount of maintenance. The income in the main depended on two properties. From one of these, consisting of certain Chinese gold bonds, Mr. Morris derived income which the Re-

Shot in Back by Robbers in Shanghai.

WHILE PAYING WAGES.

Shanghai, Jan. 1. New Year's Eve was marked by a tragic murder here, the victim being a Belgian accountant named Mr. A. Biez.

At six o'clock in the evening, Mr. Biez was paying out $4,000 as wages to employees of a brick factory situated in Brennan Road when five armed robbers entered from the back of the premises and shot him in the back. The assailants then made off with $1,200.

The victim died before reaching hospital. So far, no arrests have been made.—Reuter.

TERRIBLE MISHAP IN NEW YORK.

SEVEN OF A FAMILY GASED IN SLEEP.

New York, Dec. 31. New York has been shocked by the news of a terrible tragedy in the city, occurring to-day.

Police were called in to investigate a strong escape of gas from a flat, and could obtain no answer from the inmates.

The door was forced, and a ghastly sight greeted the eyes of the officials. All seven members of the family living in the flat were dead.

The cause of the tragedy is unknown, but one of the bodies was found in a position which seemed to indicate that he was trying to crawl to the window in order to open it when he fell down overcome by the fumes.

The other six all died in their sleep.—Reuter's American Service.

PERIOD OF ANXIETY.

SLIGHT IMPROVEMENT IN KING YESTERDAY.

MORE SATISFACTORY BULLETIN AT LAST.

CALCIUM TREATMENT.

The last two days have been days of grave anxiety for His Majesty the King. For a period of nearly thirty-six hours, the doctors were unable to report any change in the King's condition, and having regard to the extreme weakness, this fact aroused deep concern.

Yesterday evening, New Year's Day, however, a bulletin was issued announcing that new calcium treatment was having beneficial results, and that slight improvement in the general condition was apparent.

A much more hopeful tone now prevails, though several days must elapse before anxiety is relieved.

Her Majesty has been deeply touched by a New Year's Message of greeting from the Lord Mayor of London, and has sent a notable reply.

PROGRESS SLOWER THAN HOPED.

London, Dec. 31. A bulletin issued at 11.15 a.m. and administered further Ray Therapy treatment.—Reuter.

The King's condition remains the same this morning. A bulletin issued at 11.15 a.m. states: "The King has had a good night. The general and local conditions remain unchanged."

Disappointment is felt in the Palace that the doctors are unable to report any change in His Majesty's condition.

The progress for which the doctors had been hoping after Sunday's check has not yet manifested itself, and the doctors are now anxiously waiting for signs of an increase in strength.

It is, however, stated on high authority, that while the King has made no advance, he has not lost any of the ground regained after last week's serious setback.

The extreme weakness of His Majesty's condition makes progress even slower than had been hoped and is causing some deep concern.

The Prince of Wales, who seems anxious, called at Buckingham Palace this morning and stayed for some time during the morning consultation which lasted an hour.

It was officially stated during the afternoon that the King was spending a quiet day and that his condition was unchanged.

The evening bulletin, issued from the Palace at 8.15 p.m. stated: "The King has had a restful day. Slight improvement in the general condition is to be noted. The administration of calcium, a form of treatment based on a chemical examination of the blood is producing beneficial results."

(Signed) Stanley Hewitt, Hugh Riggby, Edward Dods, Dawson of Penn.

The chemical examination mentioned in the bulletin was carried out under the supervision of Professor Edward Dods, who is Professor of Biochemistry in the University of London and Chemical Pathologist to the Middlesex Hospital.

It is at present impossible to reveal how the calcium is being administered, but presumably one of the objects of the treatment is to compensate for lack of the proper quantity of calcium in the blood.

On the whole, to-night's bulletin is regarded as much more satisfactory than any other since Sunday.

The improvement, slight though it is, noted in the general condition is just what had been hoped for.—(Continued on Page 11.)

CABLE LEAD STOLEN.

ALLEGED THEFT FROM PENINSULA HOTEL.

A charge of larceny of a quantity of cable lead, the property of the China Light and Power Co., Ltd., was brought against an employee of the Company before Mr. E. W. Hamilton at the Kowloon Magistracy on Monday. The defendant was alternatively charged with receiving stolen property.

The defendant denied both charges. It was given in evidence by a Chinese detective that the defendant was stopped in Shanghai Street on Sunday morning carrying a parcel which contained the lead. In reply to questions put by the detective the defendant said that he was taking the stuff to be sold. He further informed the officer that his employers were not aware that he was selling the lead.

Mr. A. J. B. Smith told the Court that the defendant had been engaged on work at the Peninsula Hotel on Saturday, the job having been completed at noon. The lead was similar to that which he was using in the Hotel and witness would have expected the defendant to have a certain surplus from the job. It would have been about the amount that he was carrying.

A foreman employed on the job gave evidence and said that he had instructed the defendant to take some surplus lead back to the company's offices at Kowloon City.

In reply to his Worship witness said that if the defendant did not return the lead he would have been asked to explain its absence the following day.

After hearing the evidence his Worship said that it was an extraordinary case. The only two things against the defendant were, in the first place, his statement which he was alleged to have made to the constable and then the rather curious fact that he was apparently going in the wrong direction to the company's offices.

On the other hand his Worship pointed out that he took the risk of having to answer for the absence of the lead which was only worth 40 cents.

His Worship said that he could not possibly convict the defendant, remarking that he might be wrong, but he was of the opinion that the detective had misunderstood the defendant.

The defendant was discharged.

ILLEGAL BLASTING.

STONE BREAKER FINED ON TWO COUNTS.

At the Kowloon Magistracy on Monday a Chinese stone-breaker appeared on remand on charges of blasting rocks on the hillside at Ma Tau Kok without a permit; carrying on blasting operations during prohibited hours and failing to provide adequate warning of such operations.

In reply to the first charge the defendant said that he was employed by a contracting firm. He denied that he was blasting during prohibited hours or that he failed to give sufficient warning of blasting operations.

A constable gave evidence of seeing the defendant blasting at 5.46 p.m. on December 28. There was nobody to sound gongs as required by law.

A servant from a contracting firm was called and he stated that the defendant was not employed by his master.

In reply to his Worship, Sub-Inspector James said that it was with reluctance that a man from the firm consented to give evidence. It was possible that the defendant had been engaged by the contractors to use gunpowder which was prohibited.

The defendant was convicted on the second two charges and fined $10 or fourteen days' hard labour in default on each.

ADVENT OF 1929.

HONGKONG'S WELCOME TO THE NEW YEAR.

Hongkong ushered in the New Year according to well established custom and in true record with the procedure of recent years, by the firing of crackers and dancing at the various carnivals arranged by the hotels. Ships in the harbour tooted out the hour of midnight and the Observatory signals gave another indication that the Old Year had given place to the new.

There were jolly crowds at hotels and clubs. "Auld Lang Syne" was often sung and many toasts were proposed at numerous private parties arranged to celebrate the entrance of a new year.

Lane Crawford's Restaurant presented a very animated appearance on Monday night with the large hall tastefully decorated with lanterns and other artistic hangings suspended across the room. These annual carnivals arranged by the management have become exceedingly popular and there were about 300 persons participating in the festivities.

The New Year was ushered in in time honoured fashion, the Midnight Waltz commencing at 11.50 p.m. As the soft strains of music fell on the air, the lights were lowered and the music slowly died away. One minute before twelve complete silence reigned. Then from the darkness a sudden booming sound brought the people to the realisation that yet another year was passing out.

Twelve strokes made on a gong were immediately followed by a fanfare of trumpets and the raising of the lights. The Orchestra struck up "Auld Lang Syne," the company joining in.

Dance at Craigengower.

Among the many public functions arranged to celebrate the New Year was a dance given by the Craigengower Cricket Club to its members and friends. A large number were present, dancing continuing into the early hours of this morning. Just before midnight, the assembly gathered in the hall and welcomed the New Year in the usual manner.

At Repulse Bay.

Amid lavish decorations a gathering of something like 500 people saw the passing of the old year and the entering of the New, at Repulse Bay Hotel, where a thoroughly enjoyable dinner dance carnival was held. Such was the demand for accommodation at this popular rendezvous that the verandah had to be utilized to provide for those many extra patrons who could not be accommodated in the ball room.

Under the supervision of the management, a wealth of colourful decorations had been carried out which turned the ballroom and exterior into a miniature fairy palace. Holly, mistletoe, greenery, coloured lanterns and electric lights shedding a large variety of hues, added to the carnival atmosphere in which the diners and dancers revelled.

Choice selections of dance music were rendered by the Repulse Bay Hotel Orchestra.

The New Year was ushered in in time honoured manner after which the gathering broke up feeling tired but happy.

At the King Edward.

Celebrations, in the way of a dinner dance, were kept up till midnight at the King Edward Hotel, where about sixty couples took the floor. The cuisine was good and the hotel's band did much to liven the proceedings. The dance hall was specially decorated for the occasion and, as was to be expected, the New Year was ushered in by the revellers with much enthusiasm.

KOWLOON BUS.

KAI TACK COMPANY CHANGES HANDS.

A very interesting development in Kowloon transport is announced, the entry into the field of competition of the Hongkong Tramways Limited.

According to an advertisement in another page, this Company, who have only recently started a bus service in Hongkong, will be operating the buses of the Kai Tack Motor Bus Company as from January 1st.

The Kai Tack Motor Bus Company is one of the three companies at present operating in Kowloon, the other two being the China Motor Bus Company and the Kowloon Motor Bus Company. The Kai Tack Line has a fleet of sixteen buses on three different routes, the first of which runs from the Kowloon Ferry to Kowloon City by way of Chatham Road, the second from Yau Ma Tei to Kowloon City by way of Gloucester Road, and the third is a short service between Yau Ma Tei and Mong Kok.

The Tramway Company will be taking over the whole of the sixteen Kai Tack buses, twelve of which are the modern low-loading twenty seater Dennis buses and the remaining four are Dennis twenty-eight seaters. It is learned that a few additional buses will be ordered and placed on the road by the Tramway Company. This will bring the fleet to the number of twenty and in the experienced hands of such an old concern as the Hongkong Tramways Limited there is every indication that the service to Hongkong and Kowloon City will be very much improved within the next few months.

For the time being, the present service will be maintained. The route from the Kowloon Ferry to Kowloon City by way of Chatham Road has certain obvious advantages from a business point of view. The route passes Kowloon Dock, the China Light and Power Company's Works and the Green Island Cement Company's works at Hok On. Besides this, the last mile of the road is gradually changing its character from that of rough hillside to a city-like district. Houses are rapidly going up on both sides of the bus route and there is no doubt that in time to come the bus will be running through a populous district at the Kowloon City end.

No details of the purchase price paid by the Tramway Company are at present available and it is not known whether the new management intend to extend the service by covering more routes with their buses.

BOY'S DEATH.

RUN OVER BY POLICE MOTOR CAR.

An enquiry touching the death of Li Ngau, a six-year-old boy who was killed on December 18 at Queen's Road East, through being run over by a car driven by Acting Sub-Inspector Cargill of the Police, was held on Monday before Major C. Wilson.

Acting Sub-Inspector Cargill said he averred to avoid a group of children who were playing in the street. Unexpectedly, a boy darted across the road, and was within two feet of the car when he was seen by witness. He immediately applied his brakes, at the same time bearing to his left, but it was too late. The boy was knocked down, and disappeared under the car. Witness felt a bump as the car passed over the body. When picked up, the victim was unconscious.

Dr. G. H. Thomas, who examined the remains in the Mortuary, stated that death resulted from a fractured skull and minor injuries.

A verdict of "Accidental Death" was returned by the jury, who found that no blame was to be attached to Sub-Inspector Cargill.

Fashion Notes.

BLENDING OF COLOURS AND MATERIALS.

One of the most striking things about some of the evening frocks is the way in which colours and materials are combined, while not infrequently a touch of some colour entirely different from that of the gown will be introduced. An instance of the latter was seen in one recent collection, when, among the draperies at the side of a green chiffon gown, a loop of pastel-blue chiffon was placed.

It was daring, but entirely successful. Chiffon and tulle are extremely fashionable just now, as well as the heavier fabrics, such as velvet, satin, and taffetas; the last-named is very popular in the robes-de-style, of which there are some charming examples.

Taffetas, by the way, is much used for the new spiral-founced afternoon dress, usually in black. The spiral founces are very full, giving a somewhat "bouffant" appearance. Lame and metal tissues have been seen in entirely different ways, and they usually strike a note of almost Oriental luxury, which is quite in keeping with the rest of Fashion's latest decrees.

Don'ts in Dress.

The don'ts in dress are legion, and they are almost more important than their opposites. Don't have too many dresses. Don't have too much trimming. It is better to follow fashion at a reasonable distance; she is an excellent servant, but a bad mistress. Use her according to your needs and pocket, and let the motto over your wardrobe be, "Be simple, be neat, and never try to be grand."

Of Beach Brown.

Two very up-to-date ideas are featured in the frock of beach brown crepe de chine: the slightly flared skirt falling from a shape yoke, and the smartly cut bolero bodice opening over a blouse of tucked, beige crepe.

Useful Frocks for Various Occasions.

Dull blue georgette is used for the first—a simple affair, finished with collar and cascading trim of sheer lace. Printed crepe, in shades of red, navy and beige, materialises the second, which exploits a circular neckline, slightly belled sleeves and a single flare at the side of the skirt.

Simple Silhouette.

VERY COMPLICATED CUT.

The simple silhouette, which leaves the natural figure untrammelled, is the main point of fashionable costumes to-day. However, it is a far cry from the first "untrammelled" post-war costumes, to the exquisite fashions of the autumn of 1928. Although the athletic lines and the easy fit are present, the inner harmony of the current costumes is studied and subtle. Where a flat, plain bodice would have satisfied a few years ago, women demand more now.

Where simple pleats and shirings were all that was asked to give fullness to a skirt, women ask now for fullness and a novel quality.

Cuts must be narrow and unobtrusive, but at the same time, they must be distinguished. The time is past when a "little" dress-maker, who knows some fitting and fine sewing can reproduce smart lines passably enough.

The great couturiers have again asserted their distinction, by giving complicated cutting-cutting, that implies needlework which, though plain in appearance, is anything but simple to accomplish.

Skirts continue to be short for day-wear, but to be smart, must be in no way exaggeratedly so. For the evening, the new hem line is one unlimited by any hard or fast rule. It may be short in Today's Recipe.

SANDWICH CAKE MIXTURE.

Quarter lb. butter, ¼ lb. caster sugar, 2 eggs, ¼ lb. flour, 1 tea-spoonful Royal Baking Powder, a pinch of salt, milk if required, and flavouring to taste.

Put the butter into a basin and beat it with a flat wooden spoon until soft and creamy. In cold weather the basin may be warmed slightly first, but the butter must on no account be oiled, or the cake mixture will be heavy. Sieve the sugar, add it to the creamed butter, and beat again for a few minutes, until the mixture will drop easily from the spoon. The lightness of the cakes will depend very much on this creaming being well carried out.

Sieve the flour with the salt and Royal Baking Powder, which is used to make the cakes rise. Add one egg and some of the flour to the creamed mixture, and mix them in lightly. Then add the second egg and the remainder of the flour, and mix until blended, adding a little milk if the eggs are small and the mixture seems too thick. Beat all together for a few minutes, lifting the mixture high on the spoon in order to introduce air. Add flavouring, and cook as required.

THE NEW YEAR IN CHINA.

Having concluded fresh treaties with several of the Powers and secured the adherence of Manchuria, the National Government in Nanking starts the New Year under conditions which give great hopes for the future. It may, indeed, be said that the prestige of the Government has never stood so high as it does at the moment. Whilst this is true, however, it would be a wilful shutting of the eyes to the facts to suggest that its troubles are now over. Actually, all that has been accomplished so far is the laying of the foundations for the days to come. The real task still lies ahead, and the manner in which China's new leaders grapple with actualities will be the true test of the Government's fitness for the work to which it has put its hands. There are dangers ahead, but we see no reason why, if Party bickerings be avoided, Nanking's statesmen should not succeed in discharging the heavy responsibilities which they have undertaken.

One of the most satisfactory features of the situation is that the Government leaders appear to be united in their determination to have nothing to do with extremist politics, and with Manchuria also pledged to wage war on Communism there are good grounds for thinking that there will be no more official flirting with Moscow's mischief-makers. But that is not to say that the Communist danger no longer exists in China. It most decidedly does, for forces have been released in the past which even now it is by no means easy to control. In various parts of the country, the "Reds" are still surreptitiously carrying on their campaign, the main features of which are the advocacy of restoring diplomatic relations with Russia and the overthrow of the Kuomintang as well as the Nanking Moderates. In Shanghai particularly have the agitators been at work, whilst we have recently read of much activity on the part of the Left Wing of the Kuomintang Party in Tientsin and Peking, which is urging the expulsion of the Nanking leaders and the offering of a warm welcome to exiled extremists such as Wang Ching-wei. Efforts will no doubt be made to secure, at the forthcoming Kuomintang Congress, the restoration to power of men who are notorious for their "Red" tinge, but if unity is preserved amongst the Moderates it should be possible to prevent any such development.

Recent reports of extremist activity in Shanghai show that, realising its shortcomings in the internal working of the Chinese Communist Party, the Communist Internationale is now endeavouring to effect reforms which will enable the working and peasant classes to dominate the Party. This policy of the Third Internationale is not entirely new, but Shanghai officials attach some importance to it in view of past failures to extend Communist influence in political and Government circles. Those at the head of this agitation are urging the creation of Trade Union organisations to fight for Communism. In return, more posts for the workers and peasants are promised in the Party Executive. Amongst disbanded troops and famine-stricken peasants, this propaganda may be expected to yield some results, but if the National Government sets a firm face to this evil, it should be able to keep control of the situation. The hope of all well-wishers of China is that China's leaders will prove equal to the task which lies ahead, and that 1929 may witness many further steps along the road to national progress and the building up of a strong and stable administration.

Political Portents.

While the political parties will have much to interest them in three of the four bye-elections taking place one after the other in the next week or two, we imagine that some difficulty will be experienced in inducing the constituents to take a like interest. These end-of-the-term contests, when the remaining life of the Government is so short, do not meet with great favour, and no great capital can really be made out of the results. The London-jerry seat is safely Conservative and no contest is likely. The remainder, however, are fluctuating seats, the deceased members being Labour in two cases and Conservative in the other. The parties concerned will campaign intensively to hold their seats, if merely for the sake of the moral effect thereby exerted, at the same time, no great stress will be placed on an adverse decision. The probabilities are that the Labour Party will hold their seats well. The proofs are gradually accumulating that Labour is steadily approaching the point when it will be the strongest single party in the country, and that it is now very near that point. An analysis of voting figures in the last six months shows that Labour polled 70,700 votes in nine bye-elections, as against 79,200 by the Conservatives and 48,700 by the Liberals. The growing portents of British politics seems to indicate that under universal suffrage, the unknown element in the General Election (therefore imparting greater interest to the bye-elections pending) Labour may poll the heaviest vote ever cast for a single party in the history of the country. A great deal depends upon the balance in three-cornered contests. In present circumstances, the Conservatives stand to gain most by the minority vote system. It is a matter of some doubt, giving old campaigners to think seriously, whether this will always prove the case. There will be a three-cornered contest at Wansbeck which may possibly provide an aid to estimation.

CHINESE LIBRARY OPENED.

INTERESTING CHAMBER OF COMMERCE FUNCTION.

The formal opening of a modern and exceedingly well-organised Chinese library, formed under the auspices of the Chinese General Chamber of Commerce, took place yesterday afternoon at the Chamber's offices, Connaught Road Central.

The function marks a definite step in Hongkong towards the promotion of the study of Chinese literature.

There was a very large attendance, those present including Mr. Li Yau-tsun, (the Chairman) Messrs. Yip Lan-chuen, Tang Shu-kin, Wong Kwong-tin, Fung Ping-shan, Leung Pat-yue, Leung Yuen-wo, Chan Heung-pak, Choy Hing, Ma Ying-pui, and others.

In the opening speech, Mr. Li Yau-tsun said that the formation of the new library was made possible principally by the general donations of Mr. Fung Ping-shan and other members of the Chinese Chamber. At the moment the library was far from complete, but it was hoped that its extension would be brought about with the support of the Chamber and the public.

Mr. Li said that particular attention had been paid to the supply of commercial books, besides books of more general interest.

Mr. Yip Lan-chuen spoke in similar tones, stressing the necessity for improvements to make the institution worthy of its name.

Mr. Wong Kwong-tin referred to the value of Chinese learning and the importance of assimilating the moral teachings of the ancient Chinese sages as well as the learning and great thoughts of the present age. Tributes were paid to Mr. Fung Ping-shan for his enthusiasm for library organisation, special reference being made to the new library in Sun Wai City, where Mr. Fung spent $100,000.

There are no trumps and South has the lead. North and South must win two of the five tricks. Lay out the cards on a table, as shown in the diagram, and study the situation. See if you can find the proper method of play.

The Solution.

Here it is necessary, before the opponents can establish their best suit, to destroy the only re-entry which will allow them to use that suit. To do so, South must lose a trick which, if finessed by East and West, South would win. South leads the queen of hearts, which East wins with the king. No matter how the hand is now played, South takes a spade trick and North a club trick. But if South had led any card other than the queen of hearts, East could have established his spades and retained the King of hearts for re-entry.

YANGTZE FIGHTING.

STEAMER TRAFFIC HELD UP THROUGH MINES.

Shanghai, Dec. 31. Reliable reports from the Upper Yangtze show that severe fighting is going on between Yang Sen and Liu Hsiang. After fruitless negotiations Yang Sen advanced to Chungking but was driven back after heavy fighting.

In the meanwhile steamer traffic is held up as it is reported that Liu Hsiang has mined the Yangtze, while it is feared that the rival commanders may commandeer ships for transport of troops.—Reuter.

The Very Idea!

Speaking at a dinner of the Royal Society in London, the new Archbishop of Canterbury said when the King's nomination of him to the Primacy was announced, the first four telegrams he opened were from the Viceroy of India, the Lord Mayor of London, an ex-president of the Royal Society and "my estimable tailor." The last named wrote: "Heartly congratulations—awaiting further orders."

"I don't think this is a cheerful generation."—Mr. G. K. Chesterton.

The present generation has done its very best. Though jaded off and weary, still to be bright and cheery. With song and dance and jest, with broadcast humour and with jazz. It has! Indeed, it has.

In spite of competition. That gives our traders beans; in spite of prices sagging, and D.O.R.A.'s ceaseless nagging. In spite of gloomy deans, this generation in its way has struggled to be gay.

But all in vain its striving. Its efforts are pan bon, with well-contrived elation. To earn the approbation Of Mr. Chesterton. Although its style is not too bad, he finds it rather sad.

Yea, we, the Would-be Jollies, still lack the good old cheer, the free and careless laughter, that rang in roof and rafter, the old October beer. Small wonder that our gaiety seems forced to G.K.C.

It is sometimes unlucky to avoid passing under a ladder. When the old lady found herself unexpectedly in the shadow of the painter's ladder which extended right across the narrow pavement, she stepped quickly into the road without a precautionary look backward.

To avoid running her down, a car driver swerved, skidded, and collided with an approaching bus. The bus driver did his best by mounting the pavement, but it was too late. There was a nasty grinding noise, a little broken glass, and a lot of shouting and screaming.

In the meantime the painter, in his alarm, dropped his paint pot at the old lady's feet—with unhappy results.

Nobody was hurt, but quite a number of people must have reckoned if their unlucky day.

POLICE KIDDIES' SPORTS.HAPPY GATHERING AT THE VALLEY.*PRIZES DISTRIBUTED.

New Year's Day was celebrated by members of the Hongkong Police Force and their families by the holding of the annual reunion at the Police Recreation Club at Happy Valley yesterday. A programme of sports for the children was successfully carried out, being combined with the Christmas Tree, a cocoa-nut shy, and donkey-rides.

The front of the Clubhouse was decorated with flags kindly loaned by Mr. Richard Lee of Lee Gardens, and by a string of electric bulbs. Those present included the Hon. Mr. E. D. C. Wolfe and Mrs. Wolfe, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. King, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Booth, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. B. Sparrow, Mr. and Mrs. W. Kent, and Mr. Burlingham. A most enjoyable afternoon was spent by all.

Inspector's Speech.

Before the distribution of prizes by Mrs. E. D. C. Wolfe, M. B. E., Sub-Inspector James thanked Mrs. Wolfe for consenting to give away the prizes, which were won both that afternoon and in days during the year. A hearty welcome was then extended to the many members and friends of the Police Force. The speaker said that they did all they could for the children, and if any did not come to the sports and therefore missed the fun, they had their own parents to blame. The organisers had broadcast the function in every possible way—by telephone and even radio—asking every parent to give the names of all their children for presents from Father Christmas.

For some reason which he could not understand, some parents were reluctant to disclose how many children they had. Personally, if he had a thousand children he would send all their names in—(laughter).

In conclusion, Mr. James said that some people were fond of referring to the so-called lack of activity in the Police Force. His reply to such people was to point out to them that during the past two years the Force had increased in strength by 30 children. That was what he called great activity—(laughter).

After the distribution of prizes, Mrs. Wolfe was presented with a lovely bouquet of flowers, tied with the Police colours, by little Miss Joan Dwyer, and on the call of the Clown (Mr. W. Ward) who led the cheering as each prize winner came up for their awards, three rousing cheers and a lusty "tiger" were given to Mrs. Wolfe by the many children present.

The C.S.P.'s Reply.

The Hon. Mr. E. D. C. Wolfe, C.M.G., Captain Superintendent of Police, expressed thanks to the organisers of the function, and said that as far as he could remember the children had never had a more delightful afternoon than that one. In connection with the sports and Christmas Tree party, Mr. Wolfe said he must mention the names of the organisers—Messrs. James, Taylor and Thorpe—and their assistants (Messrs. Alexander and Baker), to whom the thanks of one and all were due. They had all put in a lot of hard work to make the function the unqualified success that it had been.

A special vote of thanks, Mr. Wolfe said, was due to their old friend the Clown (Mr. W. Ward) who had come every year to entertain them. He did not know what they would do if ever Mr. Ward said "I am fed up" and kept away. With Mr. Ward there, the mothers could safely let their children romp about secure in the knowledge that the Clown would look after them and see that they came to no harm. (Cheers). Charlie, Chaplin (Mr. "Paddy" Coughlin) had also helped to amuse the kiddies, and he (Mr. Wolfe) thanked him also.

Mr. Wolfe then led the gathering in singing "For they are jolly good fellows" in honour of the organisers and their assistants and then called for three cheers and a "tiger." It met with a hearty response from the adults as well as the children.

The sports results were as follow: 25 yards race (girls under 8 years)—1, Elsie Hunt; 2, Ellen Barnett; 3, Paula Hollands; 4, Beryl Carey.

ANOTHER CANTON BLAZE.THIRTEEN SHOPS & HOUSES DESTROYED.*ON NEW YEAR MORN.

A big fire, which wiped out 13 houses and shops, broke out in the heart of Canton city, in the Kwai Tack Mun Bridge district, at 2 o'clock on the morning of the New Year's Day.

It is said that the fire originated at a public eating-house, being caused by stray sparks, which set fire to a quantity of firewood in the kitchen. Owing to the high wind, the fire spread with great rapidity and when the alarm was given there was considerable panic among people in near-by shops and houses.

Despite the strenuous efforts of the Fire Brigade, the fire raged for over two hours. A piece-goods dealer's shop, a drug medicine store, a number of eating-houses, a rice shop, a cotton shop and a paper shop were completely gutted. It is not known whether there was any casualty.

Whilst the blaze was at its height, the police splendidly preserved order in the district and many residents were able to save some of their belongings and goods. It appears that on New Year's Eve the Police Headquarters ordered additional forces of armed officers and detectives to patrol the city, co-operating with the Gendarmes, who were also out in force. This special vigilance was adopted as a precaution against possible disturbances by Communists.

When the fire alarm was sounded, police and Gendarmes arrived promptly and all the approaches to the district were guarded, thus preventing any disturbances.

It is said that the folk of the eating-house have been detained by the police pending an enquiry into the cause of the fire.

OPENING OF CHINESE SEAMEN'S UNION.BETTER UNDERSTANDING WITH EMPLOYERS.

The necessity for better understanding and closer co-operation between Chinese seamen and ship-owners, and between Labour and Capital formed the keynote of a number of speeches delivered at the Chinese Seamen's Association Union yesterday on the occasion of the holding of the Union's flag.

The ceremony took place at noon and there were several hundred friends and members of the Union present. The building was splendidly decorated for the occasion.

The ceremony was performed by Li Yick-mui, assisted by Mr. Yip Lan-chuen and Mr. Leung Yuen-woo, Chairman of the Union.

The Chairman, in a speech of welcome, emphasised the need for the elevation of the general knowledge of the Chinese seamen and the improvement of present conditions provided that the employees did not lose sight of the interests of their employers, the ship-owners. Mr. Leung further expressed the desire for the cultivation of comradeship among seamen of all nationalities to work for peace and harmony, and to demonstrate their usefulness in the field of public service. He concluded by saying that he fully realized the many difficult problems and responsibilities before the Union and asked for the support of shipping, commercial and other institutions.

The Secretary of the Union, Mr. K. C. Leung, spoke in similar tone, remarking that the Union was a public body. Its future success would entirely depend on the support of public organisations and individuals.

Following other speakers, Mr. Yip Lan-chuen dealt with the real purpose of the Union, which was to offer an opportunity to the thousands of Chinese seamen to meet in Hongkong and know one another and to afford them a place where they could discuss matters of mutual interest and promote genuine friendships.

100 yards dash (men over 35)—1, Mr. Shepherd; 2, Mr. Post. Trend and Needle race (Ladies' Nomination)—1, Mrs. Hollands and Mr. Post; 2, Mrs. Clark and Mr. Eves; 3, Mrs. Altexander and Mr. Taylor.

Bowls Prizes. Lawn Bowls prizes won in competitions held during the past year by the Police Recreation Club, were also distributed as follow: Bowls Championship—Mr. A. R. Clark.

Runner-up—Mr. C. Wendell. Bowls Singles—Winner Mr. J. Oram.

Runner-up—Mr. A. R. Clark. Novices' Handicap—Winner Mr. J. Oram.

Runner-up—Mr. Mist. Pair Handicap—Winners Messrs. Whant and Gooding.

Runners-up—Messrs. Hargreaves and Mist.

Team Shield—Winners, Messrs. Wynne, Mair, Taylor and Oram.

AFGHANISTAN WAR AT AN END.SITUATION COMPELLED BY SEVERE WINTER.*KING REWARDS ARMY.

London, Jan. 1. It is learned that messages are now arriving in London with fair regularity from the British Legation at Kabul, but they hardly refer to the situation in Afghanistan, but mainly relate to plans for the evacuation of foreign nationals, which the British Government has undertaken.

The complete evacuation is not yet complete, though efforts have met with great success.

It is surmised that all serious fighting between the Government troops and the rebels has been suspended owing to the severity of the wintry conditions.

A message from Peshawar states that King Amanullah has rewarded his troops at Kabul two months' extra pay for their repulse of the rebels, and the King has also increased the pay of his bodyguard from fourteen to twenty rupees per month. It also appears that villages have been liberally compensated for losses due to the rebel raids.

Another rebel concentration is improbable before the spring, owing to the severe cold in Kabul. The Afghan Legation in London to-day stated that all fighting has ceased and that peace negotiations are now proceeding. It is hoped that the country will soon return to normal.

The Legation denies recent reports that a section of the Army has revolted, and expresses the opinion that the foreign women and children who have been evacuated by the British R.A.F. machines, will probably be able to return to Kabul shortly.—Reuter.

CHINA DISBANDMENT CONFERENCE.BIG GATHERING OPENS AT NANKING.

Nanking, Jan. 1. The Disbandment Conference opened this morning.

Mr. Wu Tze-huei, representing the Nationalist Party, stated that the Chinese had always opposed the use of force, but the Nationalist Army had had to fight corrupt militarists in the past. Since complete disarmament had not been effected by the world, China must maintain an adequate defence force.

Marshal Chiang Kai-shek, representing the Disbandment Committee members, declared that the military leaders would carry out the decisions of the Conference. He hoped to organise a first-class Army, Navy and Air Force within 15 years.

General Li Tsung-jen, Marshal Feng Yuh-shan and General Yen Hsi-shan and others attended. The next meeting will be held on Saturday morning.—Reuter.

According to Chinese information, Marshal Li Chai-sun is proceeding from Canton to attend this Conference.

He is due here to-day, coming down by special train from Canton, and is due to embark this afternoon on board the M.M. liner D'Aragnan.

NEW YEAR SPORTS AT KOWLOON.CHILDREN SPEND A HAPPY AFTERNOON.*FULL PRIZE LIST.

The annual New Year's Day children's sports under the auspices of the Kowloon Cricket Club were held on the Cricket Club ground yesterday when a large number of children thoroughly enjoyed themselves. After an afternoon of good sport, during which the band of the 3rd Battalion, 16th Punjab Regiment, played selections, the successful competitors received their prizes from the hands of Mrs. W. T. Southern.

Prior to the distribution of prizes, Mr. R. E. Lindsell, the President of the Club, thanked all present for attending, especially those who were not directly connected with the K.C.C. The speaker reminded his hearers that the gathering was not a mere Club event, but the idea was to attract all the children of the Colony, from the Peak to Fanning, and make them look forward to New Year's Day as their own party day at the K.C.C.

Mr. Lindsell expressed thanks to those who had helped, and mentioned the name of Mr. C. H. Atkins, whose efforts as Hon. Secretary had been untiring, and Mr. Jenner. The speaker also thanked those generous contributors to the sports fund which was now again self-supporting.

Mr. Lindsell concluded by expressing their gratitude and delight at having Mrs. Southern with them. He congratulated those boys and girls who had won races. To those who had not won, the speaker asked them to attend again next year and bring their friends, when they might have better luck.

Mrs. Southern then handed prizes to the following:

BRITISH TRADE ENTERPRISE.TO INTEREST OVERSEAS IN INDUSTRIAL FAIR.*ADVANCE CATALOGUE.

London, Dec. 31.

A special advance overseas edition of the catalogue of the London section of the British Industries Fair, which will be held in 1929, is now being issued to 10,000 business men in Europe, North America, South Africa and the eastern coast of South America, including all those buyers who have notified the British Department of Overseas Trade of their intention to attend the Fair.

By this publishing feat, which has only been made possible owing to the kindness of British manufacturers to participate in the Fair, trade buyers in cities as far apart as Constantinople, Capetown and Vancouver will be able to receive a copy of the Fair catalogue before commencing their voyage to England.

The catalogue, apart from containing descriptive entries of the exhibits of more than 1,200 British manufacturers, embodies a complete classification of all those exhibits by trades and indexes in nine languages, enabling foreign buyers easily to trace the goods in which they are particularly interested.

Enclosed with this catalogue of pages is an advance list of some 700 firms exhibiting at the Birmingham section of the Fair, which takes place concurrently with the London section from February 18th to March 1st.—British Wireless.

London, Jan. 1.

The shareholders of Messrs. Cammell, Laird and Company have ratified the provisional agreement for the concentration of the commercial steel interests of Messrs. Vickers, Messrs. Vickers and the Cammell, Laird, Co., Ltd.

Mr. Hichens, the Chairman of the Cammell, Laird, Co., said that the object of the concentration was to secure greater economy and efficiency. It did not aim at the setting up of a monopoly. The amalgamations now proposed were only the first step, and negotiations were already proceeding in other directions. He added that more reorganisation would be done within the groups now forming.—Reuter.

HOLIDAY CRICKET SCORING.

CLUB BEAT NAVY BY 200 RUNS.

FINE SCORE BY QUICK.

The annual match between the Hongkong C.C. and the Royal Navy was played yesterday, the fixture being a single day affair. The Club had matters entirely their own way and after knocking up 287 runs they dismissed their opponents for the meagre total of 67 runs.

The Club opened with Pearce and Hayward. The Navy's attack was not over difficult to play and runs came at a rather fast rate. Hayward lost his wicket with the score at 29 his contribution being 21. Quick joined Pearce and both proceeded to make runs freely. The latter had taken his score to 36 before being caught, the second wicket falling with 76 runs on the board.

More did not stay long but when Owen Hughes joined Quick the bowlers gave the batsmen little trouble. The score mounted quickly the hundred being sent up shortly after noon. In playing forward to Watch, Owen Hughes missed a leg break and was sent back to the pavilion, his share of 61 runs added for the partnership being 36.

Off the first ball he received from Watch, Sayer, the incoming batsman, scored a six, hitting a leg ball to the bottom of Garden Road. Just before the lunch interval was taken Quick sent up his half century, Sayer's score being 17. The total was 166 for four wickets.

On resuming, Quick and Sayer carried the total to 205 before being separated, the latter being the first of the two to leave after having scored 65 which included seven fours. Hancock only stayed to see three runs added, two of which he scored. Sayer left at 214 and Bonnar at 240. Seventeen runs later Stanion was sent back and with the score at 267 the last wicket fell.

Wales and Bonnar, who opened the attack for the Club when the naval men took their innings brought about an early collapse, Wales taking the first wicket with the score at 6. Only eight more runs were added when Trussler returned to the pavilion after scoring 6. Davies was the only batsman who could keep his wicket up, he and Waters, who scored freely for a time, sending up nearly 30 runs for the eighth wicket.

Wales bowled well throughout and at one time had only given away one run in eight overs.

ARMY BEATEN IN CHARITY GAME.

COLONY'S TEAM IN GOOD FETTER.

A BIG ATTENDANCE.

The Rest of the Colony proved too good for the Army at Soekunpo yesterday before a large crowd of football enthusiasts.

The game started promptly, Sir Shou-son Chow, President of the South China Athletic Association kicking off. Among the interested spectators was His Excellency Major General C. C. Lund and Miss Lund.

The Rest pressed from the very commencement and within the first ten minutes, Rocha, the left wing registered their first goal, following a melee in front of the Army custodian.

Suen Kam-shun, the only Chinese player on the field, added a second goal some ten minutes later with a shot which beat the Army goalkeeper all the way.

The Military forwards were not combining well together and up to this stage, Clark, the goalkeeper for the Rest had very little to do. Just before the interval, the Army forwards tested him with several difficult shots, but found him equal to the occasion.

Just before the interval, a penalty was awarded against the Army for hands against one of their backs. Goldman made no mistake with the kick. Half time score, Rest 3—Army 0.

Early in the second half, the referee awarded another penalty against the Army. The decision appeared doubtful but there was no ground to complain as the Rest did not take advantage of the ruling, the ball being sent wide. Ding-dong play followed for the next half hour, the Rest, if anything, getting the better of the game. Just before the final whistle, Cross scored the only goal for the Army. Final Score, The Rest 3—Army 1.

Wynne, who played left back for the Rest was the outstanding player of the day, and Clark, the goalkeeper was also applauded for some smart work. McKelvie, who was right half, also did well.

The bands of the Queen's Royal Regiment and the Beda and Herts Regiment rendered a fine selection of music, while the Fifes and Drums also played before the game and during the interval.

The raffle for the football was won by ticket No. 945 whilst the prize of $20 went to the holder of ticket No. 893.

NEW YEAR'S DAY FOOTBALL.

NEARLY FULL PROGRAMME AT HOME.

BLACKBURN'S EFFORT.

No very startling results marked New Year's Day football at home, although in the First Division, Blackburn had a very creditable win away when visiting Newcastle. Leeds could only manage to pick up one point when visiting Bury, but Sunderland found the Arsenal visitors "easy money."

In the Scottish League, Rangers continued their wonderful record, beating Celtic by three clear goals. Partick Thistle romped over Clyde on the latter's ground, and lowly Raith, playing at home, failed to stand up against the attack of Cowdenbeath.

HERMES BEAT C.C.C.

Lieut. Wright's Fine Batting.

At Happy Valley, the Craigengower O.C. played a friendly match against the H.M.S. Hermes and were beaten by five wickets and two runs.

The Club batting first knocked up 141, B. W. Bradbury being top scorer with 38 not out. A. B. Hamson obtained 35 before he was caught by Grehan off Gregory.

For the naval men, Gregory took six wickets for 29 runs.

The Hermes team, thanks to Lt. Wright, who scored 66 before falling a victim to Bradbury, passed their opponents' score for the loss of five wickets.

CRICKET NOTES.

(By "Two Legs").

Although most of the cricket fields in the Colony were engaged over the weekend, yet another quiet Saturday has to be recorded so far as the League was concerned. Only two matches were played, both in the Second Division. As things are going it looks very much as if a congestion towards the end will be unavoidable, especially if rain, which would be very welcome indeed, should interfere with the fixtures.

Hongkong C.C., after decisively defeating K.C.C. the previous week, trounced yet another Peninsula team in Club de Recreo. The second string of the premier club have been doing extremely well lately and are fully expected to finish their season somewhere near the top. Reid, Summers and Tait had the Portuguese batsmen in difficulties for the most part and skittled them out for 48 runs from the bat, 20 of which came from J. E. Noronha.

Kowloon C.C. 2nd were unfortunate to draw with Civil Service but it is not often that a definite decision can be arrived at on the Kowloon ground which is in perfect condition and favours high scoring. Mackay and A. R. F. Raven got well over half-a-century each whilst Lee contributed his usual 40 towards a total of 180 for three wickets—a praiseworthy score for Second Division games. Civil Service might easily have gone under but for Paterson who was again very much in the picture. Going in No. 3 he hit up the highest individual score for his side and kept his wicket intact.

Three matches in each division of the League are down for decision this week. The most important fixture in the Senior Division will be the Kowloon C.C.—University tussle on the former's ground. This will be the latter's first League match and pitted against such a strong combination as the K.C.C. they will have their strength severely tested and will be hard put to it to retain a point. It is fortunate for the Pokfulam side that D. J. N. Anderson, the Diocesan boy, has just "gone up" and will of course be turning out for them. A very stylish bat and a more than useful change bowler, Anderson will be a decided acquisition to the ranks of last year's champions.

K.C.C. have easily the better side as far as batting is concerned and are expected to run up a big score. The Undergraduates, however, are still the smartest side in the League and can be depended upon to save all the runs they can on the field. On form, the odds are in favour of the home team and any other result would be rather a surprise.

The match at Happy Valley between Craigengower and the Royal Artillery should turn out to be quite a tussle. A win for the former team will depend to a great extent on the form of their very variable bowlers. Civil Service will receive the Chinese R.C. Strengthened by the return of Reed and Evans, the Civil Servants should literally walk away with the points against their weakish opponents.

H.K.C.C. 2nd XI are expected to further improve their position in the Junior Division at the expense of the Electric R.C. One of the few teams still in the running for the championship, Royal Engineers and Signals will be keen on defeating the Police as any other verdict will be rather prejudicial to their chances in the race. In the other fixture, Civil Service 2nd are not likely to make any mistakes against R.A.S.C.

The H.K.C.C. v. Navy annual match which, as usual, attracted considerable interest was robbed

CHINA BASKET BALL TEAM.

TO TOUR THE UNITED STATES.

The All China Basketball team is leaving the colony to-morrow afternoon for Shanghai. They have arranged to play a series of three or four matches in the North where they expect to meet a tougher opposition before they leave for the United States. In Japan they will again meet some of the teams they defeated in their last tour.

Two of the members of the team, Woo and Auyang Phillip are remaining in America to continue their studies. Phillip is joining the West Point Military Academy and Woo is continuing his medical studies in Chicago.

The team has proved beyond the shadow of a doubt that they are worthy representatives of China in basketball.

They have shown local sporting enthusiasts not only wonderful team work but a true sporting spirit. Those who saw them in an exhibition game in the Kowloon Y.M.C.A. court on Monday night against the Chinese Athletic basketball team could scarcely deny that the display of the team was the best seen in the East.

of much enjoyment as it proved to be altogether a one-sided affair. The Club opened on a plummy wicket and as expected, scored very rapidly. Hayward, Pearce, Owen Hughes and Sayer severely punished the weak Navy bowling but it was left to the Rev. E. K. Quick to put up the highest score. The Padre's innings, however, was not without blemish; he was dropped more than once, the first occasion very early on by "point." The Navy batting, comparatively speaking, was even weaker than their bowling. Wales' tempting slow deliveries were very productive until Waters came in (No. 10) and rather spoiled his average by some unorthodox shots. In his first 13 overs, seven of which were maidens, Wales took four wickets for which he conceded 13 runs, and then it was really bad luck that he had 18 runs knocked off his last two overs. Bonnar kept a splendid length, swinging in dangerously from the off at times, and Quick also did his bit by accounting for a couple of wickets cheaply towards the end.

THE NEW MANCHURIA.

JAPAN'S "EMBARRASSING POSITION."

London, Dec. 31. The Manchester Guardian, commenting on the developments in Manchuria, does not think actual authority of the Nanking Government there is likely for many years to exceed that of a vaguely recognized suzerain power. Nevertheless Chang Hsueh-ling's formal hoisting of the Nationalist colours has shown unheard of independence from Japan.

The Japanese Government at the moment is not making a great success of its Chinese policy, and has several questions open. It is the only important power which has failed to make a new commercial agreement with China. The growing sense of nationalism in China will make it increasingly difficult to recognize Japan's claim to special interests in Manchuria, at least insofar as they give the right to intervene in domestic affairs in Manchuria, yet those special interests unquestionably exist. Only if the Chinese authorities are wise enough to promise to protect those interests, and are strong enough to guard them, can an embarrassed situation become harmless.—Reuter.

NAVAL PHYSICIANS TO THE KING.NEW REGULATIONS.

The Admiralty notify the following revised regulations governing the appointment of honorary physicians and honorary surgeons to the King, which have been approved by his Majesty:

Medical officers appointed as such, in future, are to relinquish their honorary appointments on retirement from the Service. Officers on the retired list at present holding the appointments are to continue to hold them.

The officer holding the position of Medical Director-General of the Navy is to receive, ex officio, an appointment as Honorary Physician or Honorary Surgeon to the King.

The total number of Honorary Physicians or Honorary Surgeons to the King is to remain at eight, excluding extra or supernumerary appointments, but the number of these appointments to be varied at discretion within the total, instead of four of each being allowed hitherto.

Officers, in order to be eligible for appointments, are to be of the rank of Surgeon-Captain or above.

EIGHT CHARGES.

RETURNED BANISHEE SENTENCED.

Seven charges of larceny of articles of clothing and one of returning from banishment were preferred against a Chinese before Mr. E. W. Hamilton at the Kowloon Magistrate's Court on Monday.

His Worship intimated that he would take the defendant's pleas on the first and last charges.

The defendant admitted both, the other counts being dropped.

It was stated that the various complainants had missed their clothing on Sunday morning and decided among themselves that they would visit the pawnshops. In one place the defendant was seen trying to pledge some of the stolen goods and was arrested by a constable who was informed of the thefts by the watchers.

On production of the defendant's criminal record it was seen that he had been previously convicted of receiving stolen property and twice of larceny, having been banished for ten years in July, 1928.

On the charge of larceny the defendant was sentenced to six months' hard labour, sentence of three months' and 15 strokes of the birch being imposed on the count of returning from banishment, the terms to run concurrently. If unfit for breaching the defendant would undergo a further nine months' hard labour.

FOUR YEARS' BAN ON MOTORIST.£50 FINE FOR DANGEROUS DRIVING.

Aubrey Leveson Dudley Ryder, aged 37, described as independent, of Wargrave, Berkshire, was fined £50, with £10 costs, and suspended from driving for four years, by the Marlborough-street Magistrate after pleading guilty to driving a motor-car dangerously.

It was stated that he came into collision with a taxi-cab outside the London Pavilion.

Mr. H. Muskett (for the police) said that at Westminister in May, 1925, Ryder was convicted of dangerous driving and fined £20, with £8 costs, and his licence was suspended for three years.

Mr. Laurence Vine, defending, said that in 1925 Ryder was blown up, gassed, and buried alive in France. He became a prisoner of war and attempted to escape on ten occasions. He was treated with great severity and confined in cells when recaptured.

A charge of drunkenness and another of failing to stop after an accident were withdrawn.

THE BANK'S POLICY CRITICISED.

CREDIT RESTRICTION AND BAD TRADE.

HOME CONSUMPTION.

London, Dec. 5.

An attack on the Bank of England and its policy is the chief feature of the quarterly trade survey of the British Electrical and Allied Manufacturers' Association.

In it the Bank is held "directly responsible" for the state of depression which has ruled in this country since March.

"If the credit and financial position had been at all adequate to the needs of the present time," state the Association, "and if industry had received from the banking interests the full support it required for the first movement of expansion, there is no doubt that 1928 would have been one of the most prosperous years since the conclusion of the war."

An analysis of the industrial situation leads the compilers to the conclusion that the trade depression, which at one time was confined to what are regarded as export industries, has spread to other industries which depend on home consumption.

"For the first time, therefore, since 1921," it is maintained, "the crisis is entirely of home consumption, and it has little or no relation to the international trade position."

Purchasing Power Lower.

The conclusion arrived at is that we are confronted with a real decline in the purchasing power of the public generally, and only one explanation can be offered for such a narrowing down of the home demand—the credit policy of the Bank of England since the spring of this year. The home market is declared to have been "virtually ruined" for the manufacturer through the unbroken regime of credit restriction which has persisted during nine years, and the lasting depression is attributed to the policy initiated by the Bank of England in the autumn of 1920, and carried out with the support of the Government in power without interruption until now.

After reviewing all the factors, the Association find it difficult to resist the impression that the upward movement in trade, which began in the first quarter of this year, and might have been expected to continue throughout the year, "if it had not been interrupted," may be deferred until next year.

Excessive caution on the part of the Bank of England, the survey adds, "has brought this country down to a state where industrialists are losing hope of ever being able to improve their conditions of production, and of earning satisfactory margins of profit."

Loans and No Orders.

It is stated that the Bank of England has made its policy depend on movements in the United States, and made sterling subordinate to the dollar. "The Federal Reserve Bank," it is asserted, "now decides the course of credit and currency in this country." If we are to have a managed currency, the suggestion in the report is that it should be managed with a view to improving industrial conditions in this country.

How we are financing our foreign competitors is the subject of a section of the report.

Loans to German municipalities for extending public utilities, it is stated, have not produced a single order for British industry, but the capital supplied by Britain has been used to supply German competing firms with important contracts, which have raised their competitive position and allowed them to undercut British firms both at home and in the Dominions.

During the present year the British industry's exports, the report shows, have declined by 1 per cent, while the world market has risen by more than 14 per cent, a real loss in the British position of 15 per cent. Germany has increased her shipment 24 per cent, the United States 15 per cent, Switzerland 50 per cent, and France 18 per cent.

"We have reached the stage now when as in the United States," records the report, "we must organise for prosperity at home, and not for the realisation of maximum security on an international financial basis."

Objection is taken in the report to the financing of the world at the expense of British industry.

Reference is also made in the report to what are described as the baneful effects on British industry of allowing German reparations to be paid in kind.

RICHMOND HILL TREES

DANGEROUS TO PUBLIC OWING TO DECAY.

The people of Richmond have become anxious for the safety of one of the most beautiful spots in England, the avenue on Richmond Hill.

For some time past it has been noticed that workmen, with the sanction of the Richmond Corporation, have been topping the branches of the trees, and as one resident expressed it, "Richmond close clipped and trim, would be in danger of becoming drab, uninteresting, and unpopular."

This topping of branches comes from the old age and decay of the trees themselves. "We have found that the trees are in a very dangerous condition," the Richmond Parks Superintendent told a Press representative.

"In some cases I am afraid it will be necessary to cut down and replant, but we can do nothing without the sanction of the Corporation. Several members of the Corporation have been surprised to find how far the decay has gone."

The Town Clerk of Richmond gave an assurance that the Corporation are jealously guarding the beauty of the Hill from needless alteration. "We must consider the danger to pedestrians from rotten branches," he added.

Are You Going to Get The Best Results Out
Of Your 1929 Advertising?

You will if you take the advice of Sir C. Higham!

"Sir Charles Higham, speaking on 'Scientific Distribution' at Anderson's Hotel, Fleet-street, said that there was no advertising medium so useful as the Press, and none that was responded to with such speed and profit. Newspaper advertising paid better to-day than it ever did. Most of the goods now consumed by the public were sold under a branded name, and the most economical method of distributing these was by Press advertising, properly done. The dealer would always stock an article which was nationally advertised in the daily Press, because he was convinced, first, that the article must be good or it would not be advertised at all, and, secondly, that the public would respond to it because they knew that they were getting good value for their money. The business of the newspaper was to inform, not reform. For the reformer, the advertisement columns of the daily Press were purchasable, and in the columns he could state his case. The Government had found this method extremely valuable in increasing the sales of British goods through the Empire Marketing Board, and the recently inaugurated newspaper campaign to increase the sale of British cars was already having its effect. These were two striking instances of the value of the Press as an advertising medium to increase the sale of commodities in general."

American Express Travelers Cheques

Definition of TRAVELLERS' CHEQUES—
 "The system of Travellers Cheques was originated in 1891 by the American Express Company with the object of creating a form of travel currency which would give the holder the security of a letter of credit and at the same time the convenience of local currency. The Company registered the cheques under the trade name of 'AMERICAN EXPRESS TRAVELLERS' CHEQUES' the word 'Travellers' being spelled with one 'L'. The advantage of the Cheques was so apparent that other banking institutions adopted the system."

PROPERTY SALE.

A VALUABLE LOT AT MONGKOKTSUI SOLD.

There was a poor attendance at the P.W.D. Office on Monday when crown property situated at Mongkoktsui was put up for auction.

The lot was valued at a high price, being on the junction of main thoroughfares. It was Kowloon Inland Lot No. 2162, at the junction of Portland Street and Lai-chi-kok Road, having an area of 4,716 square feet at an annual Crown Rental of $54 and held for a period of 75 years from the day of sale.

The upset price was $11,700 with bids of $100 acceptable, conditions of sale including the expenditure of $15,000 in rateable improvements within 24 months and the handing over to the Government of certain portions of the lot, abutting on thoroughfares, within 12 months. Scavenging lanes to be turned over to the Government free of cost and all domestic buildings erected on the site to be of European type.

The sale opened at the upset price of $11,700 and was once raised at the minimum, another offer received putting the figure to $12,000. Thereafter three bids of $100 were received, and the lot was knocked down to Messrs. Chung Yuk-hing and Kong Weng of Mau Lam Street for $12,300.

FORGED BANKNOTES.

EVIDENCE OF BANK ASSISTANT ACCOUNTANT.

The case against eleven Chinese on a charge of conspiracy to utter forged Hongkong and Shanghai Bank notes was continued before Mr. R. E. Lindsell on Monday afternoon at the Central Magistracy.

A Chinese woman, who was principal tenant of the floor at 114, Queen's Road West which was one of the addresses raided by the police in the case, stated that she recognized the 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th and 5th defendants as being those who rented two cubicles. They moved in with quite a lot of furniture, but she did not see the bottle exhibited in Court until the place was raided by the police.

Mr. C. H. Eldridge, an assistant accountant of the Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation, called to give evidence as regards the false notes stated that the forty-one notes shown to him were essentially good forgeries. The words "The Hongkong and Shanghai" enclosed within the panel at the top were, however, appreciably shorter when compared with those on the genuine notes. The forgeries purported to be those issued by the Bank on January 5, 1929, and bore a representation of the signature of the then Chief Accountant. The odd note shown to witness was identical with the other forgeries except that it purported to bear his own signature. The case was adjourned.

possession at No. 44, Reclamation Street.

A fine of $300 or six months' hard labour in default was imposed, the defendant having a previous conviction for keeping an opium den.

For being in possession of 3.3 tael of prepared opium a Chinese residing at No. 69, Nam Chong Street was fined $260 or three months' hard labour.

CUSTOMS RIFT.

INSPECTOR GENERAL RESIGNS POST.

Peking, Dec. 31.
Mr. A. H. F. Edwards, the Officiating Inspector General of Customs, has officially notified Reuter that his resignation was handed to the Finance Minister this morning.

A translation of Mr. Edwards' dispatch to the Finance Minister is as follows:

"The first essential in the efficient working of a service such as the Chinese Maritime Customs is loyal co-operation and discipline among the personnel of all ranks, and for the maintenance of such discipline it is imperative that there should be an individual head to such service, recognised and dealt with as such by the entire service, and Government."

"I have repeatedly warned you that the conditions which have been allowed to grow up in Shanghai during the past year have resulted in a form of dual control of the service, which is destroying the fine traditions of efficiency and discipline which have characterised the Customs Service for the past 70 years."

"No government service can be efficiently run where a form of dual control is not only allowed but encouraged, and as the promised steps have not been taken to eradicate the dual control which exists I have now to tender my resignation of the appointment as Officiating Inspector General and I would request the Government to appoint another Inspector General to take charge of the Customs Service without delay."—Reuter.

[Mr. A. H. F. Edwards was formerly Chief Secretary in the service, and was appointed acting Inspector General to take the place of Sir Francis Aglen in April, 1927. About the middle of January of that year mandates were issued for the collection of the 2½ per cent surtax. Sir Francis was at that time in Hankow, and on receipt of the Government's instructions to take charge of the collection of the surtax, explained that the Maritime Customs Service was not in a position to take charge of such collections in face of Japan's opposition. The Government ordered his return, but as he did not immediately return Mr. Edwards was appointed to take his place. Mr. Edwards' appointment as Officiating Inspector General was made definite about two months ago. Mr. Edwards was formerly at Canton and was wounded in the Shamen affray in 1925.]

MANAGER'S LAPSE.

SENTENCED FOR STEALING KNITTED ARTICLES.

Convictions were registered against all three defendants in the case in which three employees of the Shiu Hing Knitting Factory, of No. 1 Pitt Street, were charged on remand before Mr. E. W. Hamilton at the Kowloon Magistracy on Monday with larceny of various articles of clothing.

In statements made by the defendants the three men admitted taking the articles mentioned in the charges but gave different reasons for doing so.

The first defendant said that he had been employed at the factory as assistant manager for several years and thought that he would have different articles of clothing knitted for himself.

The second defendant said that the manager (first defendant) and the third defendant (the tally clerk), knew he had taken the woollen pullover and socks.

The third defendant said that he had a waistcoat specially knitted for himself. The socks he was merely holding for the manager (the first defendant).

The first defendant was sentenced to six months' hard labour, and the second and third to three months' each.

Mr. T. G. Bennett prosecuted on behalf of the proprietor of the Shiu Hing Knitting Factory, while Mr. C. A. S. Russ represented the first defendant, Mr. Leo d'Almada Jr., the second and Mr. F. X. d'Almada Jr., the third.

RUBBER AND TIN.

INCREASING DEMAND FOR SHARES.

During the past week fluctuations in the price of tin have been within somewhat narrower limits and according to advices received from London the metal market there continues in a nervous and unsettled state. Tin shares, both in Sterling and dollar Companies, have been quiet with prices for the most part unaltered.

Rubber remains very steady and as a result of a more optimistic feeling in the commodity market, there has been a steadily increasing demand for Rubber shares.

UNIQUE BRITISH AEROPLANE.

NEW LIGHT MACHINE
INVENTED.

MAIN PARTS OF PLANE
INTERCHANGEABLE.

ORDERS FROM ABROAD.

London, Jan. 1.

A new type of machine has been added to the world-famous series of British light aeroplanes, and it marks an interesting development in the production of British aircraft.

The machine has been designed by Mr. Simmonds, who was formerly on the technical staff of the constructors of the well-known Supermarine Southampton Flying-boats in Hongkong recently, and has been named the Simmonds Spartan.

The whole of the first batch of twelve machines has been ordered and the first machine will be sent to America on Thursday.

Australia has ordered three for private owners, one is going to South Africa, more are booked for the United States and the remainder are for home purchasers.

Main Claim.

The main claim for the new machine is in the method of making all wings interchangeable and also such parts as ailerons, elevators, rudder, tail piece, fin and flying wires.

The basis of this construction is the use of symmetrical wing sections, and although it has always been considered that they have certain disadvantages compared with the more usual wing with different camber top and bottom the designer of the Spartan claims that the particular section he has evolved compares well with those used on other light aircraft.

The engine is the Cirrus mark III which is a development of the type already widely circulated over the world. Its maximum speed is stated to be 103 miles an hour.

Schneider Cup.

America is to compete in this year's Schneider Trophy Race. Her entry reached London yesterday evening just before the time limit expired.

Up to yesterday, the only challengers who had come forward to fly against Britain—who are holders of the cup, were Italy, from whom the British team wrested the trophy, and France.

It was thought that Germany also might enter at the last moment, but this did not materialise.

The entries now represent four countries and will provide a greater number of competitors than has been since 1925.

In the last contest, there have been only two countries competing. Each country enters three machines so that will be twelve machines flying in the race which will take place in the Solent in late August or early September.—British Wireless.

FUTURE OF HANKOW CONCESSIONS.

PROPOSED INCORPORATION
BY MUNICIPALITY.

Hankow, Jan. 1.

It is learned authentically that the Wuhan Municipal Council has approached the Hupoh Provincial Political Council and gained its formal consent to take over the administration of the Special Administrative Districts Nos. 1 and 2 (the former Russian and German Concessions) in order to incorporate them into the Wuhan Municipality as from today.

This proposal is causing much speculation here. It is considered doubtful if the proposal will be made effective regarding S.A.D. No. 2, which embraces considerable British and Japanese properties—4 holdings, numbering about fifty.

S.A.D. No. 3 (the former British Concession) is protected from this proposal by the Chen-O'Malley Agreement.—Reuter.

GHANDHI TRIUMPH IN INDIA.

NATIONAL CONGRESS READY TO FOLLOW LEAD.

DEMAND TO BRITAIN.

Calcutta, Dec. 31.

The Indian National Congress has passed the resolution proposed by Gandhi, declaring that if the British Government by the end of 1929, has not accepted the principle of entire Dominion status for India, and the Constitution drafted by the Nehru Committee, the Congress will organise a non-cooperation movement.

The threat of the Congress includes an agitation urging a refusal to pay taxes.

An amendment was made by Subba Bose in favour of a demand for independence, but this was defeated by 1,350 votes to 978.

Gandhi emerged with flying colours from the National Congress, which unanimously passed a resolution proposed by Gandhi, laying down a comprehensive programme of mass organisation for the removal of untouchability, prohibition of liquor, a boycott of foreign cloth, and the stimulation of the production of home-spuns.

The Nationalist leader remarked that if his programme was pursued with iron determination, Swaraj would be within their grasp within the year.

The Congress for the first time decided to interfere in the internal affairs of the Indian States, passing a resolution demanding that the Princes shall introduce responsible government within their States.—Reuter.

FORMER FRENCH PRESIDENT.

M. LOUBET CELEBRATES HIS 90TH BIRTHDAY.

HOW TO LIVE LONG.

Paris, Jan. 1.

A spacious old house in a narrow street of the little town of Montellier was to-day the scene of an uninvited activity by postmen and telegraph messengers delivering congratulatory messages to M. Marie Loubet, the ex-President. The occasion was the 90th birthday of M. Loubet, who was President from 1890 to 1900, when the Entente Cordiale was arranged. M. Loubet, who was thus again

"TELEGRAPH" BRIDGE PUZZLES.

First of Series Appears in
To-day's Issue.

The really difficult—and interesting—part of bridge comes when each player has only three or four cards left, and the maximum possible number of tricks have to be squeezed out of them.

The player who can do well at this stage of the game is good. And the Telegraph introduces a new feature, that will help you to brush up that part of your game—and give you a lot of enjoyment besides.

On Page 6 there is printed the first of a daily series of Bridge Puzzles. Try it. You'll find it a lot of fun, whether you're an expert or not; and, incidentally, it will sharpen your own game remarkably.

The proper solution is printed with the puzzle, so that you can check up on yourself and see if you are right.

brought into the limelight, was surrounded by souvenirs of his term of office recalling the late King Edward VII, the Czar and Don Carlos.

He received interviewers with a characteristically cheery smile and unhesitatingly gave the following as a formula for longevity: "A good appetite, moderation in indulgence in spirits, never use the telephone, and double sparingly in politics."—Reuter

THE FULL FIGURES.

Peking, Jan. 1.

The Inspector General of the Chinese Maritime Customs announces that the revenue for 1928, totals H.K. Tls. 82,332,000, an increase of 13,597,000 taels as compared with 1927.

At an average exchange of 2/11.1/16th, the revenue in sterling figures amounts to £12,028,000, as compared with £9,684,000 in 1927, when the average exchange was 2/9.13.16ths.

Provincial Details.

The details of the principal provincial collections are as follows: "Antung"—2,311,000 taels, an increase of 168,000 taels.

Dairen—3,187,000 taels, an increase of 1,061,000 taels.

Newchwang—1,184,000 taels, an increase of 194,000 taels.

Tientsin and Chinwangtao—9,584,000 taels, an increase of 350,000 taels.

Kiaochow—3,318,000 taels, an increase of 7,000 taels.

Harbin—2,352,000 taels, a decrease of 16,000 taels.

Amoy—1,118,000 taels, a decrease of 54,000 taels.

The Native Customs Revenue totalled 3,636,000 taels which was a decrease of 148,000 taels.

The Loan Series.

All the foreign loan and indemnity obligations secured upon the Customs revenue have been met in full, the silver cost of which was 57,888,000 Shanghai taels.

The service, both interest and redemption, of all the Domestic loans secured on the cancelled indemnities have been met in full. The interest on those Domestic Loans which is secured on the Customs surplus and the service of which is under the control of the officiating Inspector General has also been met in full.

Redemption payments on several of these latter loans have also been made but such payments, owing to the insufficiency of the revenue surplus, are still in arrear of schedule.

Reason for Increase.

The huge increase in the Customs revenue is attributed to the comparatively immense imports during the last quarter of the year, particularly piece goods, leaf tobacco, motor cars and flour, for the purpose of evading the new Tariff.—Reuter.

Shanghai's Record.

Shanghai, Dec. 31. It is estimated that the Customs revenue for Shanghai during 1928 will approximate thirty-three and a half million Haikuan taels, being nine millions in excess of 1927, and seven and a half lakhs over the record year 1926.

It must be remembered there have been phenomenal imports in the last quarter in connexion with the new tariff.—Reuter.
